

EYR Herald Supplement

The student who kicked off the very first EYR in 2001 is now one of the leading radio presenters in the north of England.

Since leaving Sussex Downs College, James Barr has worked at Sovereign Radio in Eastbourne, Bright FM in Crawley, Red Dragon Radio in Cardiff, and is now a regular on all the Galaxy stations in the north.

Currently he presents 1-4 pm on Galaxy North East, a station aimed at 15-34-year-olds, and 10 am – 1 pm on Galaxy Digital, broadcasting to London, Central Scotland, and the East Midlands, daily. His show is also carried on Sky Digital and Virgin Media.

Over Christmas he will be standing in for various shows on Galaxy Network, heard throughout the Midlands, Manchester, Yorkshire and the North East.
