Hi-De-Hi star to meet school pupils

TWO pupils at St. Andrew's, Meads are very excited as they have a very special guest to interview on their show for Eastbourne Youth Radio.

Who can forget those wonderful TV 'holiday' moments as we were treated to the morning call of "Hi Di Hi - hello campers" followed by a day of mayhem and laughter. Central to all the action was the much-loved actress Su Pollard who is currently on tour with Annie.

Su is a friend of one of the parents at the school and didn't hesitate to agree to be interviewed on EYR when asked. Eleanor Hester Lock and Jess Lamb, both in Year six, will be finding

College links up with hospice

ENTERPRISING students from Hailsham Community College are working with St Wilfrid's Hospice to raise vital funds for this local charity. The innovative students are pictured here with Hospice's Day Therapy Clinic patients who have been busily painting stars in preparation for St Wilfrid's Christmas Magic event in Eastbourne on December 5 and 6/2009.

HCC is working closely with St Wilfrid's on the coming Eastbourne Youth Radio show, 87.7FM, with their programme being broadcast at 2pm on 20 November.

Claire Umney from St Wilfrid's Hospice said: "We are delighted to be working with HCC not only with the EYR show but with all their fundraising work."

The HCC students recently had a tour of the Hospice to give them further understanding of the work that the hospice does. For further details call Claire on 01323 437422 or email claire.umney@stwhospice.org out about the tour and the trials and tribulations of being an actress as well as lots of other fun questions. Expect plenty of laughs and reminiscing!

The programme is being broadcast at 3pm on Thursday, November 19 (also Women's Enterprise Day) on both 87.7FM and www.eyr.org.uk.

Make sure you listen in - don't miss it.
