Welcome to EASTBOURNE YOUTH RADIO 2021

As Chair of the Eastbourne Education Business Partnership, it gives me great pleasure in welcoming you to Eastbourne Youth Radio (EYR) 2021.

There are few projects which bring together so many schools, students, teachers and employers in the intense and fulfilling experience of 3-days of live radio broadcasting from the studios of our partner East Sussex College in Eastbourne. Furthermore, EYR provides the whole Eastbourne community with a local project that they can feel a part of, with parents, grandparents and friends all tuning in to 87.7FM or via www.eyr.org.uk to hear the youth programmes and contributions from their families and schools.

EYR is notable for its longevity and sustainability, and, we are proud to be celebrating our 21st year. This is an achievement in itself, and testament to its value, popularity, and its ongoing relevance to the curriculum and personal development of students. More than 1000 students will be involved, representing schools and colleges across the area, supported by the sponsorship of over 40 businesses and other organisations, a really wonderful example of the collaboration between education, commerce and the community. My sincere thanks and congratulations to everyone involved

And a note for your calendars and diaries: BFS (BIG Futures Show), the town's largest employability, skills and job seekers event, and another project of the Education Business Partnership, returns on 26th April 2022.

Faiza Shafeek

Chair, Eastbourne Education Business Partnership

ON AIR!

Eastbourne Youth Radio (EYR) returns to the airwaves for the 21st year from 17th – 19th November 2021 on 87.7FM and online at www.eyr.org.uk. Broadcast from studios at East Sussex College in Eastbourne, EYR sees students aged from 5-19 from local schools and other organisations, present their radio shows covering a wide range of topics – much of it live. This year's broadcast coincides with several notable events. Namely, Anti-Bullying Week, Global Entrepreneurship Week, UK Parliament Week and finally BBC Children in Need. Individual programmes will cover all of these during the packed 3-day schedule.

EYR is only made possible by the considerable support and involvement of the many businesses and organisations that are detailed in the listing pages that follow.

Alison Brewer, Director of Brewers Decorator Centres and lead sponsor says, "We are delighted to once again support the Eastbourne Youth Radio, a very worthwhile project in our heartland of Eastbourne. We've seen first-hand the wonderful opportunities the project offers the students; developing organisational, technical and creative skills and giving the opportunity to delve deeper in topics that directly affect them and their future. We're very excited to get involved and hear what the young people of Eastbourne have to say!"

We are very pleased to receive a grant from the Eastbourne & Lewes Community Safety Partnership. This recognises our work promoting Anti-Bullying Week and this year's theme 'One Kind Word' plus associated issues around mental health and wellbeing. Several programmes will focus on related stories and the organisations providing support including Holding Space, Haine & Son and Culture Shift.

Southern Water is back in the studio for a couple of programmes to talk about 'Water for Life' and the troublesome 'Unflushables'. East Sussex Fire & Rescue Service will be talking important safety issues. Shaw Trust and People Matter Trust will be providing advice and support for local job seekers and The Toy Stop will no doubt have a few Christmas messages for us! St Wilfrid's Hospice will be discussing their caring work and opportunities for volunteering and the team from Radio DGH will also be talking about their invaluable service across the wards.

EYR is all about enabling young people to research, produce, present and perform their own material in association with community partners for a family audience. From this they learn and develop a whole range of skills that they will find helpful in future life.

We hope that you enjoy listening to their work over the three days.

BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Brewers Decorator Centres, a family run business, was established in Eastbourne in 1904. Brewers now have over 180 stores across the country keeping professional decorators and DIY'ers in paint, wallpaper and decorating accessories. The Company continues to have its Head Office, central warehouse and flagship store located in the town, employing local people in a wide range of roles.

Community and charity support have always been at the heart of the company. Not least supporting projects in the local area, but also helping communities across the UK and further. Whether through paint contribution, monetary donation or sponsorship, Brewers recognises the importance of keeping community places and spaces alive with colour and positivity.

A recent project includes the Brewers Towner Commission, a large scale mural on display at Towner art gallery. The design was created by artist Lothar Gotz and features a vibrant geometric pattern which was painted in Albany, donated by Brewers. The bright and colourful installation has been well received by the local community and it set to continue spreading positivity and cheer until Spring 2024.

THE UNFLUSHABLES

DON'T PLAY 'FLUSHING ROULETTE' WITH YOUR HOME

Our sewer network takes a lot of looking after to keep it running well – but we need help from our customers too. Flushing unflushable items like wet wipes, tampons, condoms and cotton buds starts a problem.

If you're lucky, they're caught at our wastewater treatment works – but that just means that, like last year, we took over 4,000 skips of unflushable items to landfill. Add in leftover cooking oil, fat, and grease poured down kitchen sinks and you've created a blockage in our sewers, which can lead to sewage flooding your home.

To avoid it, simply pop all unflushable items in the bin and cool leftover cooking fats, pour it into a container and throw it away.

Looking back:

21 YEARS ON THE AIR-WAVES

EYR launched in 2001 as a 24 hour pilot project to help engage students with local community projects and contribute to their citizenship work and personal development.

What made EYR unique was the range of student ages and other organisations that came together in a single project. Children from the age of 5 worked alongside post-16 students in the EYR studios. The project continues to contribute to curriculum and staff development and support various aspects of GCSE and BTEC courses.

Some 35,000 students have now taken part in EYR. Many of these have participated at primary, secondary and post-16 level before venturing into further and higher education, employment and in some cases the media industry itself. Former EYR'ers have worked at BBC Radio 2, Radio 4 and CBBC Radio together with independent radio stations, newspapers and general publishing.
